What went well in class this week? (Please use this space to mention also any acts of respect that you noticed.)

	Number of Respondents	Percent
Discussions in class went well - I thought that they were fun and Terra's idea seems to be working.	1	5.56%
Everything was dandy	1	5.56%
Everything.	1	5.56%
i felt as though this past week went very well. the variation in large group and small group days was very effective. i liked how mr.O read a quote from the book and we talked about it. for an hectic week we managed quite well.	1	5.56%
I really enjoy this new system, where Mr. O reads passages or ask questions, and we discuss them. I think it strikes the perfect balance between structure and intellectual freedom.	1	5.56%
I really enjoyed the line-up on friday...we all learned a lot about each other.	1	5.56%
I really liked the small group discussions, because I thought they went really well. Our group had a very in depth and interesting conversation and I liked it a lot.	1	5.56%
I think everything went pretty well, we had some delicious class discussions, even though we had a couple shortened days.	1	5.56%
I think that the lineup on Friday went well. Even though it did not pertain to Moby Dick, it was good insight into my fellow classmates, and I enjoyed it.	1	5.56%
I think, although it has taken some time and probably will continue to, that the class is starting to be able to work together and compromise, along with learning how to work the non-hand-raising idea.	1	5.56%
I thought that this week the medium sized group discussions went really well. In each group I was in we had some really great discussions and everyone was able to say something.	1	5.56%
I thought the medium sized group discussions went well.	1	5.56%
I thought the small group discussions went well this week. and the class discussion about relationships and our faults was a great way to get to know everybody even more!	1	5.56%
On Friday, I think the lineup went great. Not only was it a change from the every-day discussions on Moby Dick, but I feel like we all learned a lot about each other. It definatly gave me a new sense of respect for everyone.	1	5.56%
Small groups went really well this week. It's been a long time since we had them and they were refreshing.	1	5.56%

That line up was sick and now i know exactly how i need to act. But ah yea disscusions were good.	1	5.56%
The line up about the different aspects of relationships went very well. I learned more about each classmate than I had ever known before. Everyone was very open and honest, and it was the one connection the class was missing.	1	5.56%
the prompt on friday was fun	1	5.56%

What could have gone better? (Please use this space to mention any disrespect you noticed as well.)

	Number of Respondents	Percent
absorbing so much reading was hard to keep up with. i think we should do a full book overview to get better prepared for the objective test. i think last week when someone put there complaints about mr. o in the survey that was really ridiculous, if you have a personal issue with someone you should confront them because a lot of people don't agree with what was said and it made mr. o feel bad	1	5.88%
Everything was fine.	1	5.88%
fruitcake disaster	1	5.88%
I am falling behind a little in Moby Dick, simply because I can't read all that we are assigned every night. I am able to do my homework, but I feel that I'm not getting a lot out of the book because i have to skim over a lot to get it done.	1	5.88%
I feel that people have been a little hard on Mr. O. He has only tryed to help come up with solutions for our problems or concerns, and some people arent realizing that they themselves might be the reson for their complaint or problem.	1	5.88%
i really dont have any real complaints. the only thing was that there was no break in the reading, as in there was no time to catch up. i know for a fact that a good portion of the class has been extremely behind and has had to skip some portions of the book in order to keep up. i enjoy the book so i didnt want to do that so over time, particularly because of the snow day, i became about one hundred pages behind. i caught up eventually but it was very difficult with a busy schedule. eventhough nothing can be done about it now, it might be something to consider for next years class.	1	5.88%
I think everyone in our class becomes a little wired about the respect issues. We always seem to have discussions about respect that don't really lead anywhere because we bring up all sorts of issues that happen in all of our classes, but this is the only class willing to change them. I don't think there is much that needs to be changed in our class other than the downing vibe that some people aren't respectful. After all, we are a large class of self reliant kids who are just trying to get their opinions across the table.	1	5.88%
I think that respect to Mr. O could have been better this week.	1	5.88%
I think that starting class with a large group disscussion is in effective and that we need to alwasys break into small groups to disscuss things first.	1	5.88%
I think that this weeks class was great!	1	5.88%
I thought everything went very well this week.	1	5.88%
I would of liked to have gotten the plagerism prompt back...but that's not bad at all. I can just wait a til next week or something.	1	5.88%
Nothing! Class this week was great.	1	5.88%
Nothing.	1	5.88%
Still seems like we're going over the same topics over and over again in class. It gets tedious

after a while. Maybe it's because most of us are having a hard time keeping up with the reading, and either skimming the whole thing, or only reading certain chapters and picking out rhetorical devices and pithy quotes from that.	1	5.88%
Stop checking with Julia every time you state a fact. She's human too, and I imagine it scares her to have that kind of power over people. It seems as though we aren't really reading Moby Dick. Sure, technically, we're reading the words, but I think we are going too fast to truly read it. I know we have to finish before Christmas, but I wish we could have taken the time to explore and appreciate this book a bit more.	1	5.88%
Ummmm I really think that this week went well, except for the personal attacks on Mr. O in last weeks survey. Mr. O is our teacher, and he deserves our respect. Respect is a major theme in this class, and I don't feel as if some students exhibit it to Mr. O. He does the best for this class, and, as the white board says, he "sets the standard." He has accomodated us in every way possible every time we have had a problem with the class, but this is too much. We have a reputation as being a whiny class, but I feel that it has truly gone too far. When people start rallying against the survey because it "makes kids feel left out," I start to laugh, because I am rarely in the survey, and I feel empowered to respect others every time I hear someone's name called. That could have gone better. But other than that, it was fantastic!!!!!! :) :) :) :) :) :) :) :D :) :) :) :) :) :) :) :)	1	5.88%

Identify someone who inspired you this week, someone who achieved something above and beyond expectations.

	Number of Respondents	Percent
conner hyde inspired me this week with his pithy quote alternative on wednesday, i think. he drew a picture of the whale being tied to the boards so that they wouldnt go under. the expression on the whales' faces was very amusing	1	5.56%
Connor McKaig inspired me by bringing enthusiasm into our class.	1	5.56%
Elise was very considerate when she offered Liz a coughdrop because her voice was raspy.	1	5.56%
Every single person inspired me with their honesty and contribution to the relationship line up.	1	5.56%
I was inspired by the bravery of Elise because he will always be there to catch you when you fall. I was inspired by Kelsey because she cares more that i ever could.	1	5.56%
I would have to sayyy Nora because she is always so nice to everyone. I think she is probably one of the nicest people I know :] Go Nora!	1	5.56%
It has come to my attention that last week's sonnet was in fact seven couplets. This is, in fact, a real sonnet dedicated to Kelsey Nyland. With her curly locks and lovely smile, Kelsey Nyland, I appreciate you. Oh Kelsey, for you I would walk a mile, Kelsey is the best (got that right, foo)! She always does her work and reads her Dick, (Moby, that is). Kelsey is way too smart And polite. Instead of swears she says "frick", Gangsta at heart, a shopper at K-Mart, Kelsey is by far my favorite student. She's fantastic when she plays field hockey, Also, when she's driving she is prudent. I have never known her to be cocky. She is the nicest girl you'll ever see. Kelsey Nyland, oh, you inspire me!	1	5.56%
Lauryn inspired me with her theory that Ishmael is actually a girl. Also she is just an inspiring person in general.	1	5.56%
Mike O, with beard of grey and eyes of brown, With randomizer readily at hand, With many great philosophies renown, Whose class is never boring, dull, nor bland, Shall I compare thee to a noble stag, Who stands up righteously for what is pure? Perhaps to winding snake - but, not to brag, Your clever wit surpasses it for sure. Oh no, Sir O, for you remind me of Saint Nicholas, who all respect and love.	1	5.56%
mr. o for his jokes during the relationship line-up	1	5.56%

Mr. O inspired me this week, because he always has an interesting and funny story to tell during line ups.	1	5.56%
Mr. O inspired me this week. He dealt effectively with, though unjust, harsh criticism, and that was inspiring. People need to back off of him. He is a great teacher, a great role model, and an even better guy.	1	5.56%
Mr. Putnam inspired me because he peeled an entire grapefruit during lunch, really, that takes SKILL!	1	5.56%
Rachel Halper inspired me this week with her courage and unwavering sense of right and wrong. When she told the entire class that she didn't think calling Kelsey moody was funny any more and might be hurtful shows how much she cares.	1	5.56%
so many people inspired me this week. especially with the discussion we had in class on Friday about our faults that takes a lot for somebody to admit to a group of people what they believe their faults are.	1	5.56%
Someone who has inspired me this semester is Julia. I really admire the way she thinks, how she is so opinionated, so real with her ideas and thoughts. She may not know this but she has helped me to understand how much I can be more open about my ideas, and more of a contribute to the class. Thanks Julia! :]	1	5.56%
This week I was inspired by Kelly Pitman because she always contributes great points during group discussions and always has a positive attitude.	1	5.56%
This whole class did really great...we each told an entire class our faults and no one laughed. We created a safe and caring environment for each other.	1	5.56%
